HRI Educational Grants

Guidelines for applicants

The HRI Educational Grant scheme helps people who want to deepen their knowledge of homeopathy research to attend our international conference. We are now inviting applications for grants towards HRI Malta 2027 only.

GRANT VALUE	WHO CAN APPLY	HOW TO APPLY
£200 to £500 towards registration, travel and accommodation	UK residents involved in homeopathy and/or scientific research	One-page letter emailed to events@HRI-research.org

Key dates

3 December 2026 Application deadline	Mon 7 December 2026 Decisions announced	31 January 2027 Grant claim deadline	18-20 June 2027 HRI Malta 2027

Who can apply

Applications are open to UK residents involved in the study, practice or teaching of homeopathy and/or scientific research.

How to apply

1. Write a letter of no more than one A4 page telling us:
   - your current role in homeopathy and/or research
   - what you hope to gain from attending HRI Malta 2027
   - how you will use or share what you learn
2. Format it in Arial 12pt, double-spaced, and save it as a PDF.
3. Email it to events@HRI-research.org by 3 December 2026, with the subject line "Grant application – [your name]".

How grants are awarded

Grants are awarded on merit. All applications received by the deadline will be reviewed together, and decisions will be announced on Monday 7 December 2026.

If you are awarded a grant, you must claim it by booking your conference ticket by 31 January 2027, at the early bird rate (from €405). Grants not taken up by then may be offered to other applicants.

Find out more

See what to expect at HRIMalta2027.org, and watch highlights from past conferences and interviews with speakers on our YouTube channel.

Rachel Roberts
Chief Executive, Homeopathy Research Institute